BRING AN ECO-FRIENDLY VIBE INTO YOUR KITCHEN

The recycled fabric from plastic bottles supports your goals to make a positive global impact.

Re:Collection

The new line of sustainable products from Chef Works brings a forward-thinking approach to culinary and hospitality apparel. The Re:Collection uses REPREVE® Polyester, which was developed by Unifi®, the No. 1 producer of recycled polyester. This process converts plastic bottles into sustainable performance fabrics. It's a chance to re-use materials, re-source fabrics and re-imagine the way we do business.
